

Southern Sugar Maple

Acer barbatum

Southern sugar maple displays beautiful fall foliage in November/December – golden yellow leaves are an outstanding addition to any yard. It is smaller and more heat tolerant than true sugar maples. Its flowers in the spring are a bright yellowish-green. This tree is underused and should be planted more in the Houston area. Height ranges 30'-80'.