

Heidi Sheesley TreeSearch Farms

Georgia Savory
Calamintha georgiana

A small, compact, evergreen shrub with wonderfully scented, tiny, glossy, dark green foliage. It is covered with attractive, small pink flowers in late summer and fall. For all its' wonderful attributes, the Southeastern U.S. native is also very drought tolerant and it attracts hummingbirds & butterflies! It grows in full sun or light shade in well-drained soils.