

Common Name: Gulf Coast Muhly
Botanical Name: Mulenbergia capillaris

Plant Type: Grass

Growth Habit: A beautiful grass native to the Houston & Gulf Coast area. A clumping grass with a very fine, airy foliage. It's a show stopper in the fall with a cloud of pink flowers! Prefers good drainage but will tolerate occasional wet once it's established.

Exposure: Sun, light shade. Mature Height: Averages 2'

Attracts/Supports Wildlife: None noted.

Landscape View:

